MOMENTS

The days and weeks seem to have flown by as we look back on the 1964 school year. Whether we were Sophomores, Juniors, or Seniors, the year was composed of incidents that will remain forever in our memories. As Hilltoppers leaf through the IDYLL, the pictures will recall times of admiration, relaxation, and tradition; that is, IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL MOMENTS.

Playing on our emotions, IDOL MOMENTS remind us of those occasions filled with happiness and ecstasy when we were in the limelight, as was Mr. Clarke when he presented a one man singing performance. Or, of the despair we felt as we passed the library and acknowledged in mournful silence the flag flying at half-mast after the death of one of our IDOLS — the President of the United States. IDLE MOMENTS include those times of forced relaxation and anticipation as the J.V. football team, along with the spectators, awaited the execution of the next play. IDYLL MOMENTS bring recollections of the pride that we had for Hilltop as we viewed the front of our "home away from home" around which most of our activities were centered. They also summon to mind the mirth and enjoyment of the traditional "field" events of Tournament Day and the mud-slopped faculty members.

Remembering those IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL MOMENTS creates other emotions that can stem only from the high school years spent at Hilltop.

IDOL IDLE IDYLL MOMENTS

With every passing day another segment is added to the history of Hilltop High School, and all of the students who are encompassed by its activities are the authors. In the chapter entitled "1964" there are three divisions: (1) the events that are classified as IDOL MOMENTS; (2) those IDLE MOMENTS; and (3) those classified as IDYLL MOMENTS. Because this account of the passage of the year is written by students, most of the anecdotes concern them, but the stabilizing effect of the presence of the administration can always be felt.

Even "stuffy" writers recognize the presence of IDOLS and the MOMENTS when these people bask in their good fortune. The Homecoming Queen and her court are certainly to be counted among the most widely honored of all IDOLS produced by Hilltop. Other ones that cannot be forgotten are the J.V. Cheerleaders and their frolicking attitude that adds to the spirit present at all J.V. games. Waiting patiently for the end sheet picture of the annual to be taken, the band, Lancerettes and specialty groups listen for directions from their IDOLS, the band director and Lancerette captain.

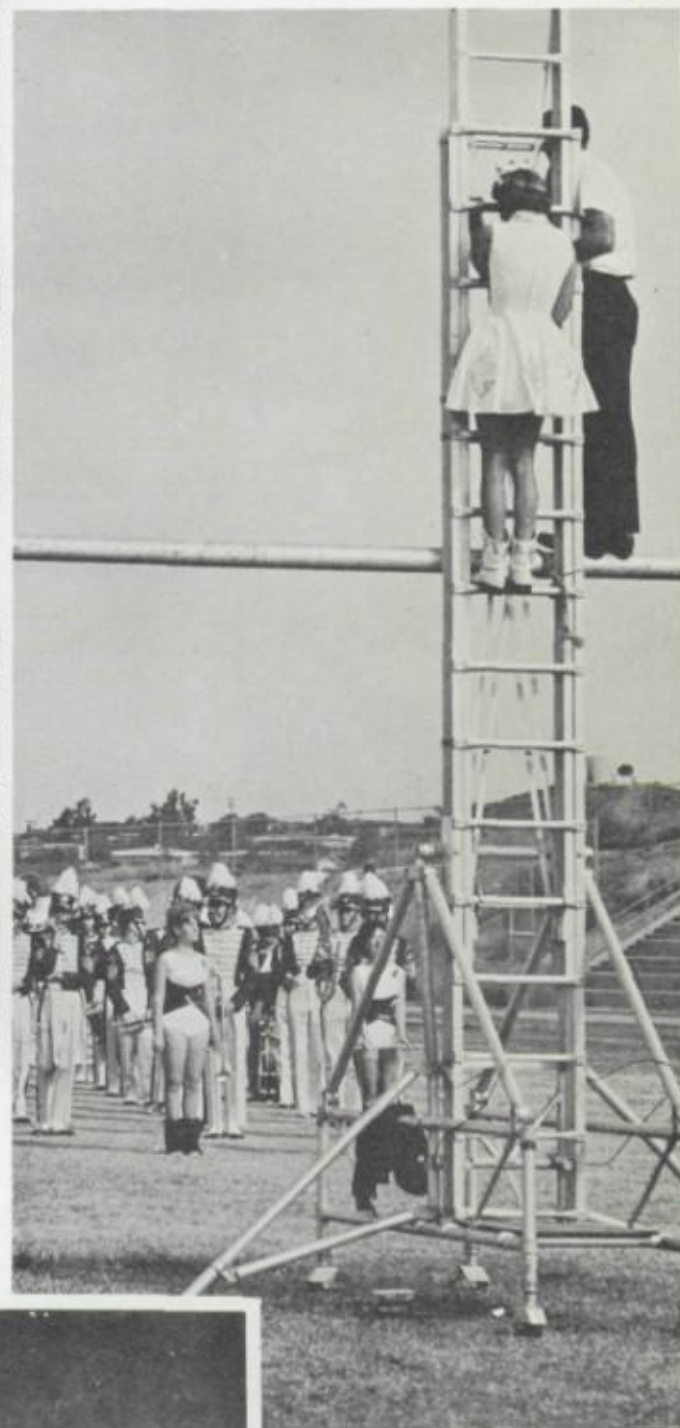

IDLE MOMENTS, necessary after term papers, critical essays, and debates were due, were often spent at the sports events in which Hilltop's teams participated. Members of the teams were able to enjoy moments of relaxation, especially when something other than the action on the field momentarily caught their eye.

Included within the many IDYLL MOMENTS cited by Hilltop's historians, the traditionally outstanding half-times presented by Hilltop's marching units are among the most important.

Offered as a review, or resume', of the IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL MOMENTS contained in Hilltop's history, "1964," the authors wish to assure everyone that these are only a few of the innumerable moments.

MOMENTS

Wet weather may put a damper on Hilltop's activities, but the spirit that burns within each student is always bright, never flickering. This spirit that can't be extinguished is what keeps the name "Lancers" smudge-free. Hilltoppers can stand up proudly when answering the question, "What school are you from?" The intelligence, control, and fun that the students exemplify is reflected in their IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL MOMENTS.

"Kid stuff" is never allowed to ruin the activities; rather, they are supported by those who understand that the greatest enjoyment comes from that which is motivated by mature, sophisticated people. This mature attitude is recognized in their choice of IDOLS and the MOMENTS in which they choose to pay homage to those placed on the pedestals of public acclaim.

The pleasures gleaned through participation in Hilltop's IDLE MOMENTS clearly indicate that the presence of sophisticates doesn't put a "clamp" on merriment and joviality.

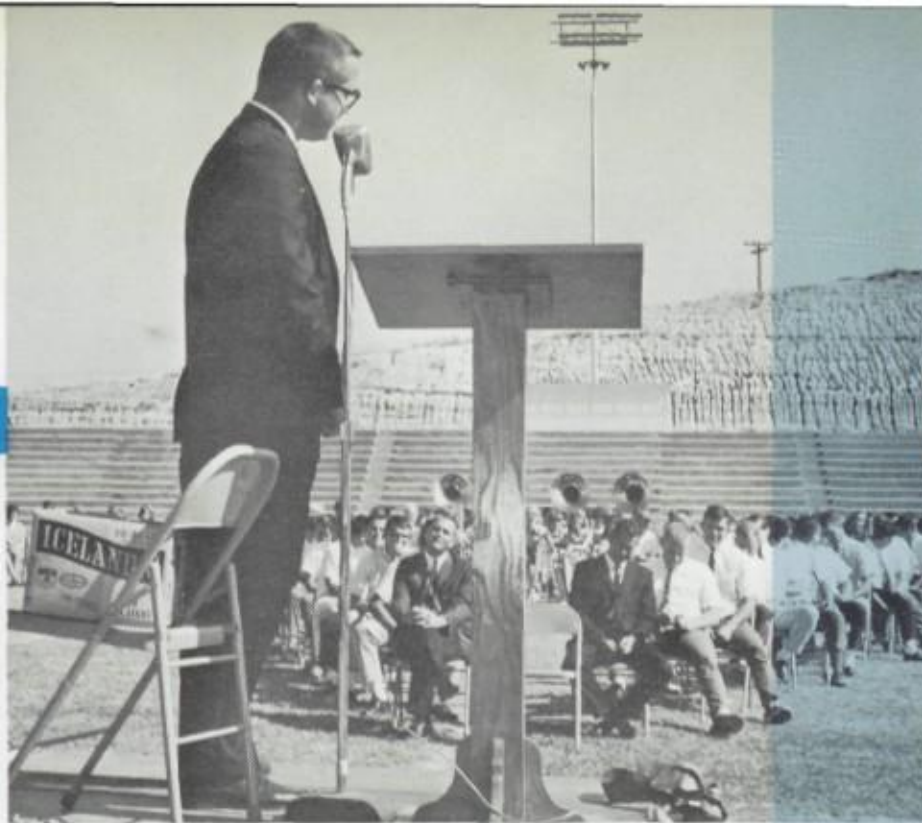

Even the success and continuance of the IDYLL MOMENTS, those centered around tradition, are attributed to the dignity of manner that is possessed by the students who are thoughtful enough not to restrict or spoil the chances for student activities in the future.

Because of these characteristics expressed by Lancers, IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL MOMENTS will be remembered with pleasure for many years.

The newly formed Sophomore boys' club, Squires, sells doughnuts to help swell their treasury.

The IDOL of all members of the football team, Mr. Sisk, takes a MOMENT to present the players for the big Homecoming Game with Castle Park.

Talented majorettes enjoy an IDLE MOMENT of relaxation during a strenuous half-time practice.

Future IDYLL MOMENTS, such as winning a trophy for excellence, are created in "behind the scenes" rehearsals.

IDOL IDLE IDYLL MOMENTS

All aspects of life at Hilltop are included in IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL MOMENTS. Often an incident can be categorized into more than one of the divisions. The pep band is symbolic of this. As it performs at a basketball game, the members become IDOLS for those inspiring members of the band who want to join this elite group of top band members. The pep band also has its IDLE MOMENTS as it relaxes and watches the thrill and excitement of a Hilltop basketball game. The pep band is a traditional feature of home basketball games and therein lie its IDYLL MOMENTS.

The same MOMENTS, IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL, can also be applied to classroom activity, such as in one of Mr. Haught's math classes. Included within IDOL MOMENTS are those times when the teacher astonishes the students with his vast knowledge, or when a student receives the top test grade on a difficult test. Even in classrooms, places of active learning, there are pauses for IDLE MOMENTS.

The students watched the bleachers go up with expectancy — finally home football games would be played on our own field. The Homecoming Assembly marked the first time when the entire student body gathered in the new bleachers.

As we think back on all of the IDOL, IDLE, and IDYLL MOMENTS that happened either to ourselves or our friends we realize that this year was really one of adventure, work, fun, and pleasure.

IDOL

MOMENTS

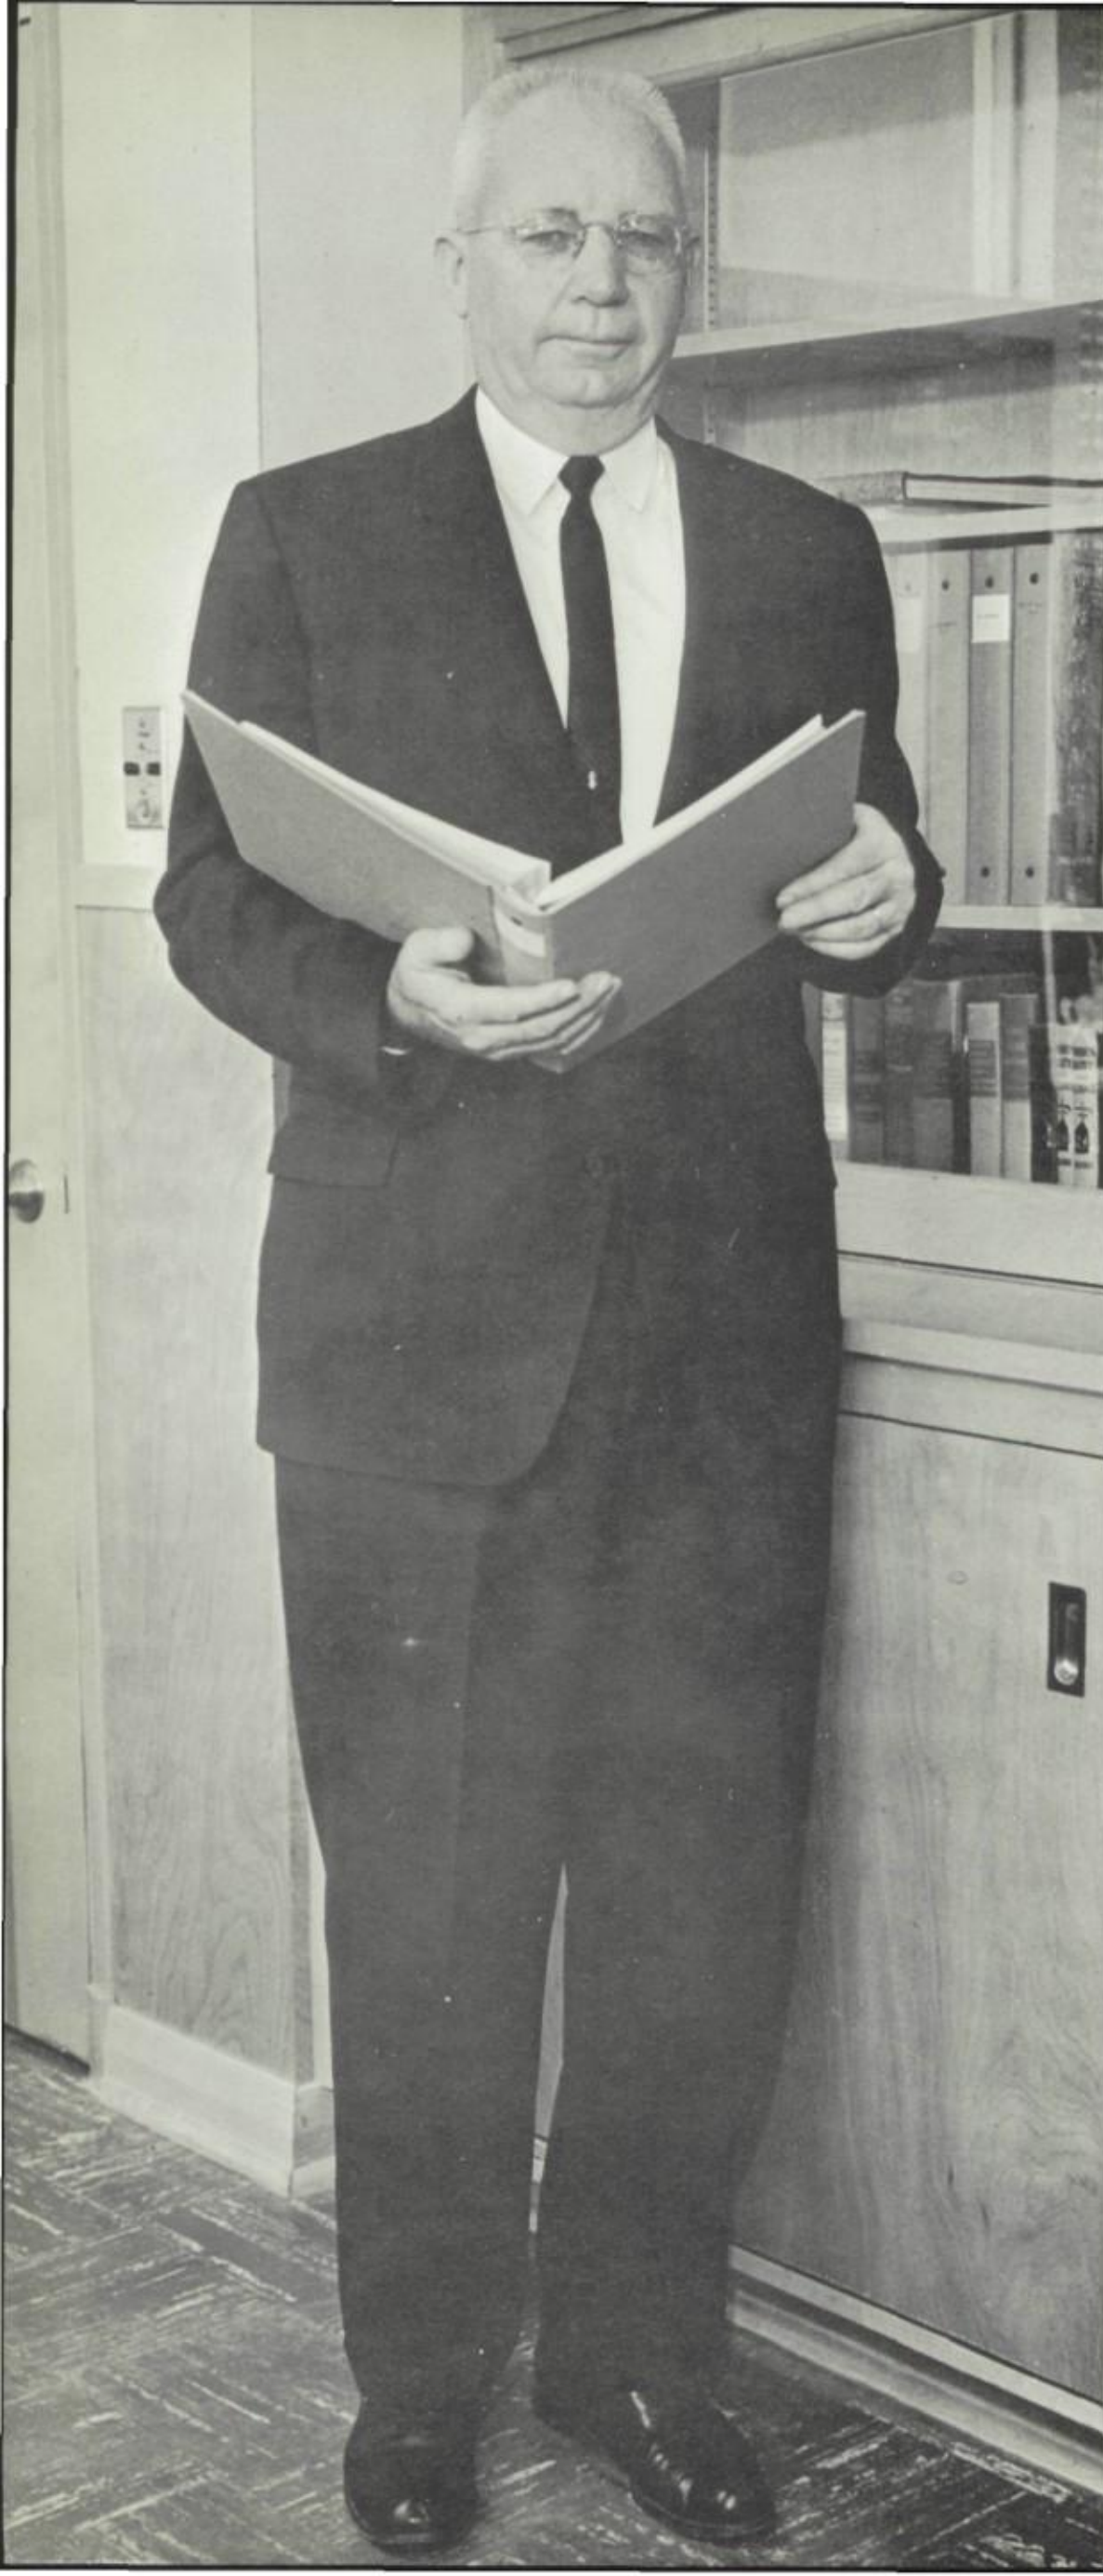

The very backbone of all activity at Hilltop lies in the able guidance of our faculty and student government. Without the direction of the administration, little would be done to improve the physical and mental state and outlook of those who pass through this establishment of learning. The capable direction of the administration, which provided Hilltop's IDOLS; the acquired traditions established by the administration, furnishing Hilltop's IDYLLS; and their recognition of needed moments of relaxation as Hilltop's IDLE MOMENTS made our three-year stay at Hilltop mean much in memory's eye.

Standing out prominently in our memories of Hilltop's administration will always be the IDOL, IDYLL, and IDLE MOMENTS. The images captured on this page will help us remember such symbolic events. IDOL MOMENTS, treasured forever because of the help of our understanding counselors on the first day of school and the dignity of the office of A.S.B. President at the most important assembly of the year, will never be forgotten. IDYLL MOMENTS, or moments of tradition, will be kept fresh through remembrances of our principal's Homecoming hat and A.S.B. election posters that exemplify the traditional competition for trust and honor of A.S.B. offices. Of course, there were also pleasantly relaxed IDLE MOMENTS reflected by faculty cheering on their co-workers during a Tournament Day competition and three important people resting from the strenuous labors of keeping Hilltop's marching units the best in the area. Each student has had some connection with at least one facet of the administration: each student will be forever grateful for its kind assistance.

A D M I N I S T R A T I O N

MR. FRED N. MAHONEY

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Fred Mahoney, characterized by his affable smile and his friendly and warm personality, has experienced another fruitful year at Hilltop. Through his trust and inspiration, he encourages admirable conduct among Hilltop's student body.

Although directing the faculty and performing administrative duties take up most of his time, he always has time to get to know many of the Lancers. He always has a kind word or sincere greeting for everyone.

All Lancers will remember him as that warm-hearted gentleman with short white hair and twinkling eyes who exemplified the traditions of a true Lancer.

Since an idol is one to be admired, Hilltop students in years to come, will look back upon Mr. Mahoney as a leader of dignity, integrity, warmth, and kindness.

MR. ROBERT GEYER

BOYS' VICE-PRINCIPAL

Assisting the Lancer boys in their scholarship and athletic endeavors is Mr. Robert Geyer's major task as vice-principal each year.

Mr. Geyer sets up specific qualifications for all boys participating in any athletic activities. Although he is a very busy man, he always has time to watch "his boys" in their fight for victory at games.

A part of Mr. Geyer's character is his sense of fairness and humor in dealing with the Lancer boys. In encouraging high standards, he demonstrates a strong firmness whenever necessary.

His calmness in meeting responsibility is clearly shown in his efficient administration of the vice-principal's office.

MRS. GLADYS HARTZELL

GIRLS' VICE-PRINCIPAL

Hilltop High School owes much to Mrs. Gladys Hartzell, a very capable and industrious woman.

Charged with the responsibility of counseling the Lancer girls, Mrs. Hartzell has helped them become better citizens through her understanding guidance.

As Girls' League advisor, she has given the girls much of her time. Her leadership has helped in making their activities this year the most successful in the school's history.

Devoting great energy to the California Scholastic Federation, Mrs. Hartzell has also aided this organization in its activities.

This energy has also been exhibited in her work with the scholarship program. Taking an interest in each Senior's need of college advice, Mrs. Hartzell has helped many to make the right decision about college, as well as helping them obtain needed scholarships.

SWEETWATER DISTRICT

Through the guidance of the highly trained Board of Trustees, the Sweetwater Union High School District is able to function efficiently and effectively.

These men spend many hours working together making plans to better our schools. As a result of their efforts, under the leadership of Mr. Rindone, our district has come to be known as one of the best in San Diego County.

TRUSTEES

MR. JOSEPH RINDONE, JR.
Superintendent

Hilltop's faculty, the guiding instrument, has proved exceptional. Teachers have guided students by their advice, encouraged them by their confidence and optimism, and inspired them by their examples. Here, teachers intently watch and supervise an assembly.

Mr. Fleming explains to Miss Messina and Mrs. Sennett about his pottery show which was on exhibit in the school library during the week of November 4.

Answering telephones, writing out call slips, and keeping records on file are just a few of the many duties performed by the office workers in our school. They include from left to right—Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Lichtenberger, Mrs. Hallberg, Mrs. Thomas, and Mrs. Matweecha.

Throughout the year these ladies are busy planning and cooking lunches for hungry Lancers. They are from left to right—Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Beitzl, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Majchrzak, Miss Bynum, Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Boudreau, and Mrs. Sandoval.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

With the responsibility of electing the best qualified officers to represent them, students took the time to register and vote for their choices. The various officers, Senators, and Representatives have done a superior job this year. Their organization, spirit and compatibility have greatly aided our student body activities.

TERRY MAPLE

A.S.B. PRESIDENT

Terry Maple accepted the office of A.S.B. President, knowing that with the prestige would come many responsibilities and duties during the year.

A.S.B. President is the highest office any student can receive. Terry has shown outstanding ability in scholarship and also in extracurricular activities throughout his high school years.

During Terry's three years of high school, he has played varsity football, baseball, and basketball. He is Vice-President of Hilltop's Key Club and the Lance Sports Editor. This year Terry received the Optimist Club's citizenship award and the Elks Foundation Youth Leadership award for the Sweetwater Union High School District.

In order to thank everyone for such a successful year, Terry sends a special message to the student body. "I would like to express my appreciation to all those who have helped make this year an outstanding one, and one which I will surely remember for the rest of my life."

A.S.B. VICE-PRESIDENT

PAT BORUNDA

Serving next to the President this year was Vice-President Pat Borunda. Much credit is given to him in helping make this year a very successful one.

A.S.B. Vice-President must know everything that is going on. Pat was ready to assist the President with his duties in case of conflicting circumstances.

Hilltop's Vice-President is an active member of the N.F.L. and the C.S.F. He is also a member of Hilltop's Key Club and has participated in varsity swimming and wrestling.

This Lancer has exemplified ideal conduct, for which all Lancers strive, during his year as A.S.B. Vice-President.

A.S.B. SECRETARY

LYNN IWASHITA

This year's A.S.B. Secretary was always on the go. There were minutes to be taken, correspondence to be written, and certain records to be filed. As busy as she was with all her other activities, Lynn was always ready to take care of her responsibilities.

During Lynn's years at Hilltop, she has participated in many activities. She has served as a Senator, a Girls' League representative, a member of Lancerettes for three years and a Lieutenant this year.

Lynn has shown much interest in school activities and in her position as A.S.B. Secretary. Therefore, this year's Secretary has been very successful.

"HOW THE WEST WAS LOST"

Hilltop's gym doors were opened on March 12 and 13 in order to allow the public to view the tremendously successful '64 all-school Variety Show. "How the West Was Lost," was definitely one of the best productions in Hilltop's five years of Variety Shows. Under the capable direction of Susan Rockar and the faculty advisors, Mr. William Demos and Mr. Charles Schanke, the show seemed quite professional. Over one hundred students were involved in the performance, including the stage band, vocal ensemble, talent acts, cast, and production crew. During the four weeks of exhausting rehearsal preceding the performance, each participant devoted time, effort and energy to produce the best show yet.

Susan Rockar
Director

The script, written by Senior Pat Stirnweiss, told a western but definitely humorous tale of talent. The story began when Hal Smith was shot through the "hade." Lester questioned the alibis of all suspects and finally proved himself worthy of the Marshall's badge when he discovered Mac Millan was the killer.

The highlight of the show, adding the extra spark of humor, was the Boy's Kick Chorus that lacked nothing but precision.

Usually the finale signifies the end of the show, but in this case the excellent talent and witty lines will be remembered by all in the future.

Learning through experience — a fitting maxim for the year that completes our required education. Never again will there be anything like the Senior year. Much hard work and late hours were routine requirements for Seniors to maintain their places as the leaders of Hilltop. The purposeful class of 1964 filled these established positions and made the class one that will not easily be forgotten.

Some IDOL, IDYLL, and IDLE MOMENTS of the Senior year have been captured in these photographs. IDOL MOMENTS typified by a Senior boy wrestling with a little boy at the Senate Christmas Party, and the Seniors rising to salute the flag, black-draped in memory of the Seniors' greatest Idol, the late President, will never be forgotten. IDYLL MOMENTS symbolized by the traditional Senior basketball game and the annual Toys for Tots drive made the year seem typically "Senior." Just as everyone has moments of relaxation, so did the Class of 1964. IDLE MOMENTS, including just arriving at school and the football team resting on the Senior lawn at a surprise lunch pep assembly complete the picture of our Senior year. All Seniors can never forget the joys, sorrows, privileges and work of our last year; all underclassmen look forward to becoming a part of the memorable Senior year.

S E N I O R S

COUNSELOR

As Mr. Green watches the Class of '64 receive their diplomas, he will be deeply proud of the class that he has so efficiently and unselfishly directed. He has worked with this class for three years, watching them grow and change.

The Senior year has proved to be the most challenging with preparing for the numerous Senior activities, and the big job of obtaining information for Seniors about colleges, college tests, and job opportunities, but Mr. Green's jovial personality has eased some of the tension. His jokes and friendly smile made us feel secure at needed times.

Mr. Green will be remembered by each Senior with admiration, respect, and affection. Because of his guidance the Class of '64 will be prepared to face the future with confidence.

OFFICERS

The rigors of leading the Senior class demand highly capable persons. The Class of '64 elected these people: Don Montell, President; Russ Alsobrook, Vice-President; Gail Dillion, Secretary; and Nancy Kuebler, Treasurer. They eagerly accepted the challenge and filled their positions well.

The officers conducted Senior assemblies and aided in the success of all Senior activities. The Senior class, in cooperation with the Lance Staff, presented the successful '64 Variety Show.

In keeping with the traditions and responsibilities of being Seniors, the Class of '64 has been outstanding. These officers, with the enthusiastic support of every Senior, have made this class one of unparalleled accomplishment; an idol for incoming classes.

C.S.F. LIFE MEMBERS

CARL BANDELIN

One of the highest academic honors that can be achieved at Hilltop High is to receive the California Scholarship Federation Sealbearer's Award. The Class of '64 had thirty-three students who accomplished this feat.

The Sealbearer's Award is given only to those Seniors who have attained membership in C.S.F. for four semesters, including one semester in their Senior year.

This award in itself is a great honor but it will never be adequate compensation for the time and effort put in so willingly by these Seniors. The future holds much for these award winners and there will be numerous rewards for them because of their superior achievements.

The Senior Ditch Day Committee joyfully planned Seniors' legal day to ditch. Left to right: C. Anderson, J. Schnorr, C. Powell, C. Coates, T. Sturgess, J. Olivas, K. Howland, B. Litchfield, K. Brixius, and J. McKechnie.

Ideas for the class gift were suggested by the Senior Gift Committee. From left to right: N. Rose, M. Stump, K. King, K. Tachiki, P. Davis, L. Iwashita, B. Piety, and G. Baldwin.

Plans were made by this committee for the Senior Banquet that was held at Del Webb's Ocean House. Left to right: L. Webster, S. Phillips, J. Smith, K. Brown, B. Fosselman, D. Holmes, J. Link, M. Swift, W. Hess, and T. Hayes.

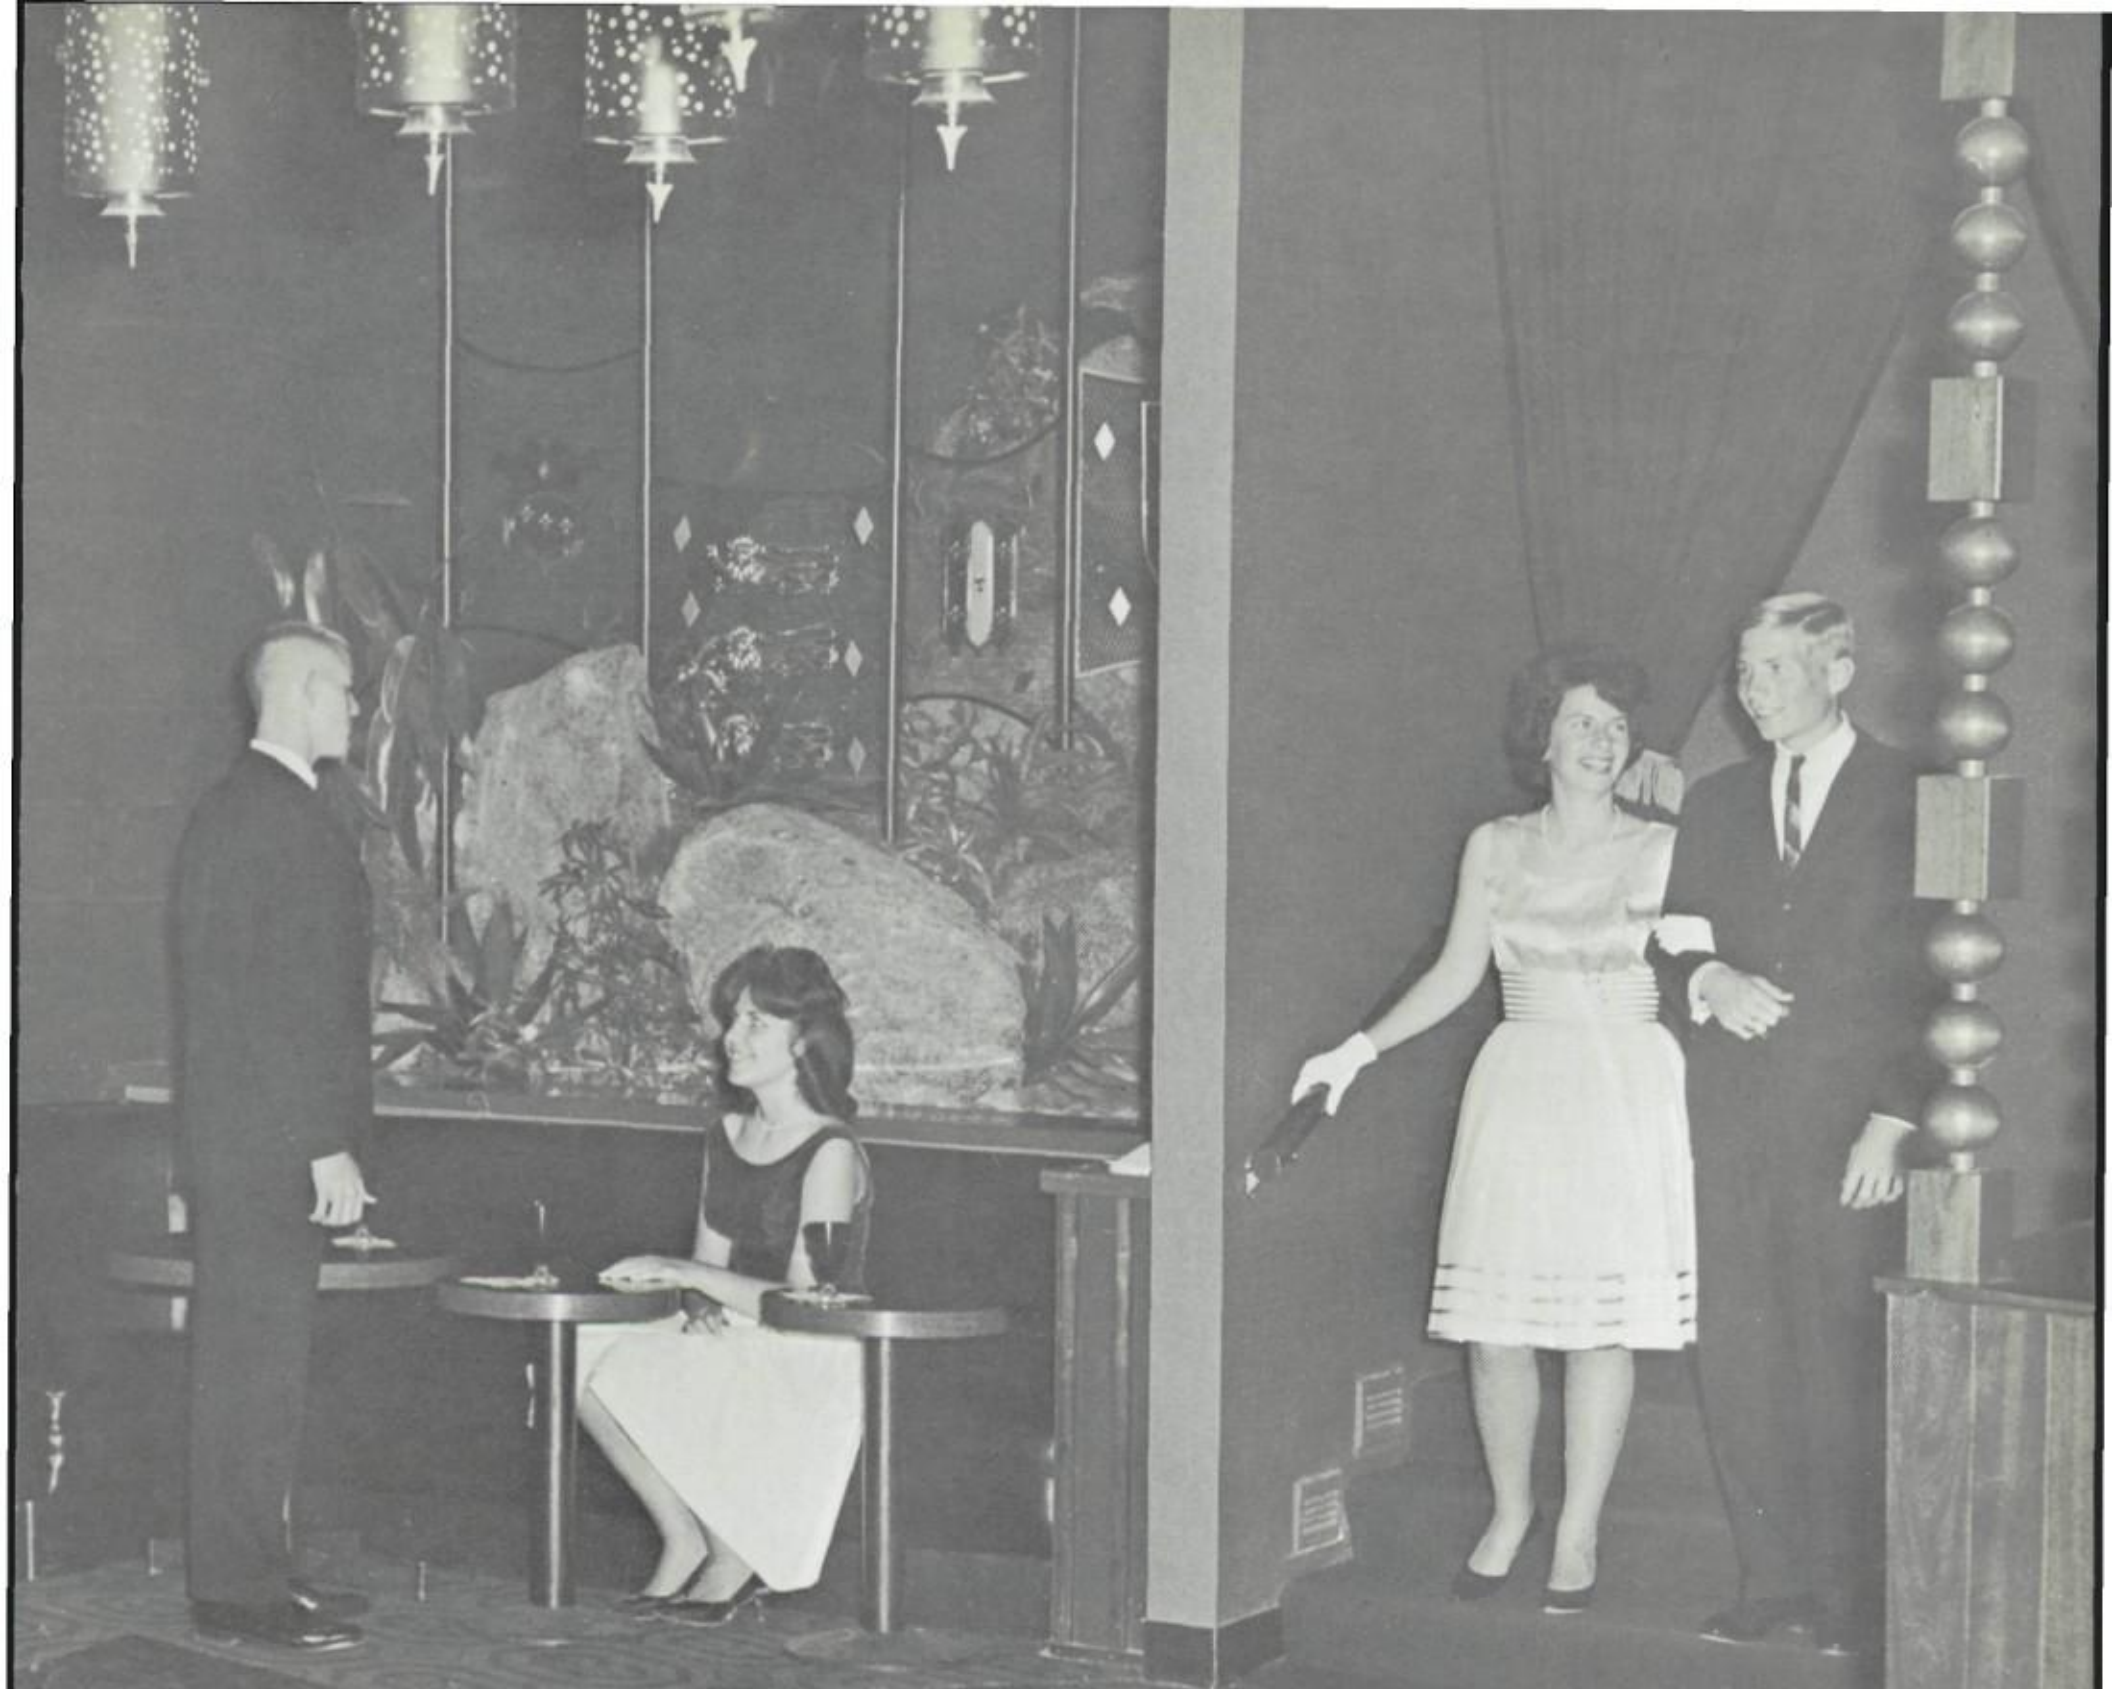

SENIOR

With faithful leaders, we, the Class of '64, set out to make our impression on the history of the school as an active, versatile class. Our Sophomore year was the beginning of new privileges and of a vast wealth of knowledge that we were to obtain. The fond memories increased at every step, as we became more determined to earn ourselves the reputation of being an outstanding class—an idol. The transition from meek Sophomores to mighty Seniors can not be measured in months or years, but rather in experiences. Leafing through those golden pages of memorable experiences, we find a fondness that no author from Shakespeare to Hemmingway could capture in color, glamor, or vivaciousness.

What Senior can forget the bewilderment and astonishment that overcame him when he stepped on to the campus that was to be his home for the next three years. Unsure as we were, it was not long before we learned one thing: the Senior Lawn is off limits to underclassmen! Slowly we began to participate in school activities. The various clubs offered a realm of interests that accommodated almost everyone. Soon our class could be seen busily participating in the marching groups, speech tournaments, clubs, Project Amigos, and the all important government functions of the school. We were extremely thrilled and excited to elect Senators to represent us in our government.

Who can forget the Howdy Dance, Chula Vista games, Girls' League formals, Civics projects, quotes from Hamlet and Macbeth, Iowa tests, College Boards, Tournament Day and the disastrous grade days ("ay, there's the rub"). All are a part of our memories, and although not as prominent as Senior traditions and activities, they constitute the important small things that "pop" into our minds once in a while.

Our Senior year began on the last day of our Junior year as we trampled the footsteps of previous Seniors on the Senior Lawn. With Senior rings on our fingers and excitement in our hearts, we gave our Senior yell for the first time and also gave jubilant shouts for that idol year ahead.

As our Senior year passed rapidly before us, allowing no Senior a brief respite to glance back, our activities began and ended with undying speed. The dreamy Senior Prom at the El Cortez, the casual after-prom at the Red Coat Inn, the tearful Senior Banquet held at Del Webb's Ocean House, solemn Vespers, awesome Senior Award Assemblies, and heartfelt Graduation marked an end to those three wonderful years. That walk of importance to receive the diplomas, once a vision pushed into the future, was upon us. As our choked voices sang, "Hail to Alma Mater . . .," we could see the visions of our memorable and exciting past before us. Our present was our past, and our future was our present as we left those halls behind.

Now, as we go forth from child security to adult responsibility, we will remember these three years of fun, hard work, salty tears, bubbling laughter, treasured friendships and wonderful teachers. And, we leave, to those who follow, the halls of our beloved Alma Mater, echoing our voices, that are slowly fading into the distance. As old must make way for new, we must make way for the younger generations. Nothing now is left but majestic SENIOR MEMORIES; idyll of treasured moments never to be obliterated from our minds.

A C T I V I T I E S

Laughter, enjoyment, and good hard work make up the unforgettable Lancer activities. Constantly striving to better Hilltop's name, students involved in activities have brought back numerous awards in forensics, journalism, and music. Unceasing dedication is required for members of the band, pep groups and, of course, the energetic clubs; personal satisfaction and genial memories are the rewards of participation in activities. The activities' capable leaders, who supplied Hilltop's IDOLS; important Lancer traditions preserved by the activities, furnishing Hilltop's IDYLLS; and the relaxation found at greater plateaus of enjoyment, comprising Hilltop's IDLE MOMENTS, provided an outlet for extra energy and also insured Hilltop's outstanding reputation.

Symbolizing remembrances of Hilltop's activities are the IDOL, IDYLL, and IDLE MOMENTS on this page. IDOL MOMENTS, captured by precise halftime routines and cheering for the team as led by an enthusiastic pep leader, will provide enjoyable flash-backs. IDYLL MOMENTS, emphasized through traditional pep club posters and doughnut sales so typical of all campus organizations, will never be forgotten. And finally, IDLE MOMENTS, exemplified by enthralled students relaxing at the Hootenanny, and resting after struggling with a tuba in a pep band performance, will keep fresh memories of Hilltop's glory. Anyone involved will treasure forever the memories of amusement and achievement derived through participation in any one of the fabulous activities of 1964.

QUEEN ROSIE

The ever-present twinkle in Rosie O'Day's eyes became even brighter when she heard herself being named as Homecoming Queen for the year of 1963. Always thoughtful of others, Rosie said her first thought was how proud her parents would be.

Donning a jade-green brocade floor-length formal accented with a scalloped bodice, Rosie was greeted enthusiastically.

The voices she led as a cheerleader were now directed at her.

This attractive blonde has certainly done her share in school activities. Active in the senate for two years, she served as Junior Varsity Cheerleader in her junior year and capably filled the position of Varsity Cheerleader this year.

Homecoming spectators will long remember how queenly Rosie enhanced the excitement of Homecoming.

The queen and her lovely court are captured with candid expressions of great joy. Rosie is seen at the height of her happiness, expressing joy, as most women do, with tears.

The queen and her court are seen as they begin their reign over the Homecoming Dance. Attracting many admirers, they lived up to their characteristics of charm and beauty.

PRINCESS SHAYNE

Sparkling Shayne Schuller abounded in excitement as she took her place in the Homecoming Court. Her radiance was enhanced by her pale turquoise formal with a pearl bodice. Being spotlighted was not new to Shayne who has been in numerous activities around school. A class officer for two years, and Junior Varsity Cheerleader in her junior year, Shayne also served this year as Head Varsity Cheerleader.

PRINCESS PAM

Perky Pam Bellevan made a lovely princess on the evening of Homecoming. Wearing a pink silk organza floor-length gown, the glow on Pam's face was evidence of her happiness. Being a girl with many interests, she has served as a Girls' League Representative and Lancerette in past years and this year as alternate Varsity Songleader. Pam's escort for the Homecoming Dance was Pete Selvig.

PRINCESS NANCY

Charming and lady-like Nancy Kuebler radiated her joy in becoming Homecoming Princess as she gracefully accepted her crown. Arrayed in a vivid pink peau de soie gown, Nancy beamed as she was escorted by 1963 letterman Don Wilkinson. Always active yet poised, Nancy is kept busy as Senior Class Treasurer and President of the newly-formed "S" Club.

PRINCESS JACKIE

Jackie Yost showed great happiness in her scintillating smile as she was selected as a Homecoming Princess. She was lovely in a white silk organza formal trimmed with antique lace. Jackie has served in both the Senate and the House of Representatives and her position as Homecoming Princess climaxed her Senior year.

Working closely with the Cheerleaders and adding to the traditional collegiate style were the Varsity Songleaders of 1963-64.

By attending songleading camp at Redlands University and devoting a large percentage of the summer months to perfecting their collegiate style, they were able to perform with a spirit of confidence and a glow of anticipation. Lively and snappy routines adapted to popular songs sparked a great deal of pep and enthusiasm along with favorites like "Saints," "Peter Gunn," and, of course, our "Fight Song."

A salute to our Songleaders for their abounding vigor and sincere devotion.

Spirited, peppy, and enthusiastic best describes Hilltop's 1963-64 Varsity Cheerleaders. This energetic group introduced new chants, cheers, and the Lancer "Spirit Ball" which promoted enthusiasm in the crowds and gave inspiration to our Lancer teams.

Attending Redlands cheerleader camp during the summer and practicing many long hours, this group gave Hilltop cheerleaders to be proud of. They remained spirited both through the victories and the defeats. They combined past routines with new collegiate styles, acrobatics, and balancing tricks to promote the great Lancer pep found in this spirit-filled year. Thank you, to our cheerleaders for their impressive appearance and never-failing spirit.

MARCHING LANCER BAND

ROYCE RIGGAN
Drum Major

The Autumn Band Review, the annual battle between eleven of the top bands in San Diego County for the privilege of representing San Diego in the Pasadena Rose Parade, found the Marching Lancers placing second, finishing ahead of all bands except Mt. Miguel.

The well-trained Hilltop marching band paraded down Ocean Boulevard at the All-Western Band Review in Long Beach. Seventy bands competed in the West's top competitive parade. First place in their division was the reward for hundreds of hours which band members spent in preparation for this event. They placed second out of seventy bands in music and third in marching, making this their best year in All-Western competition.

The percussion group includes: C. McGinley, J. Nutz, L. Sorensen, B. Latislaw, C. Ramsey, D. Thompson, and librarians B. Black, and T. Struble.

Low brass players this year are, top row: D. Eddleman, B. Lindell, T. Kessler, P. Hastings, S. Smith, D. Johnson, J. Harris, N. Bailey, J. Leech, C. Pulliam, D. Meyers, and J. Seagren.

Trumpet players are, top row: G. Van Beenen, M. McCain, K. Antrim, G. Lindsey, D. Pickard, M. Staton, T. Armstrong, J. Nutz, and K. Dugan.

C O N C E R T B A N D

The sax section consists of, top row: N. Perdue, R. St. Clair, R. Carlson, M. Gonzales, T. Jensen, J. Godfrey, B. Van Patten, N. Bendickson, C. Young, and M. Weiss.

Horns and flutes are played by, top row: J. DeVore, E. Moss, K. Logan, R. May, D. Hobbs, T. Duderrar, J. Millar, S. Moulton, B. Wittmeyer, R. Roley, M. Calvert, and S. Fuller.

PEP BAND

Our Pep Band proved to be very valuable this year as it accompanied the specialty groups during basketball games and pep assemblies with songs such as "Blame It on the Bosa Nova," "Magnificent Seven," "There Is Nothin' Like a Dame," and other bouncy hits. The Pep Band is under the leadership of Larry Sorensen this year. Assemblies and games just wouldn't be complete without this small but mighty band and its colorful music.

BAND OFFICERS

Officers this year include, Shelba Fuller, recording secretary; Carol Pulliam, treasurer; Renette Robinson, historian; Steve Smith, Senior representative; Newt Perdue, president; Royce Riggan, drum major; Norman Bailey, secretary; Larry Sorensen, vice-president; Gayle Lindsey, Sophomore representative; and Mike McCain, Junior representative.

First-rate football halftimes, planned and carried out by the band officers with the assistance of Mr. Padelford, were cheered and well-accepted by all spectators. "The Wooden Soldier" drill appeared to be the most popular of all performances and it was evident that the Marching Lancers enjoyed their work.

Under the supervision of the Lancerette officers and "Miss Pete," the Lancerettes were led to a victorious season of activities. Marching in parades, football and basketball halftimes, and pep assemblies made the agenda a successful and complete one. But that wasn't all—the Lancerettes participated in fund raising programs for the new band uniforms and helped plan dances, concerts, parties and trips. Satisfaction and fun was the reward for the hard-working Lancerettes.

"Bottoms up!" would be an appropriate title for this minute portion of the popular routines performed by the Lancerettes. Adding personality and spark to the basketball halftimes proved to be the ambition of all the girls.

Forming an entrance aisle for the battling Lancers during pre-game was but one of the duties of the Lancerettes. In perfect unison, the specialty group accentuated the fabulous Lancer Band. Tedious after-school practices prepared the high-stepping groups for the football halftimes which would be incomplete without them.

Smiling Lancerettes project their happiness after receiving a warm welcome from the spectators. The sharp contrasting colors of their uniforms prepare you for an exciting event and leave you anticipating their next entrance.

FLAGS

This year's Flag Corps added much color and variety to the football and basketball halftimes. They seemed to keep their audience in awe throughout their routines.

Although these girls are not in competition, their skill and ability adds to the band's score in competitive parades.

Many hours of practice by these five girls were reflected in their unique routines.

The Majorettes for 1963-64 were Maxine Peterson, Treasa Struble, Karen Brown, Edith Werdelman, and Ruth Boland.

MAJORETTES

Adding much to the football and basketball halftimes, the high-stepping Hilltop Majorettes originated routines to popular songs such as "Itsy Bitsy Teeny Weeny Yellow Polka-Dot Bikini" and "Ragtime Cowboy Joe."

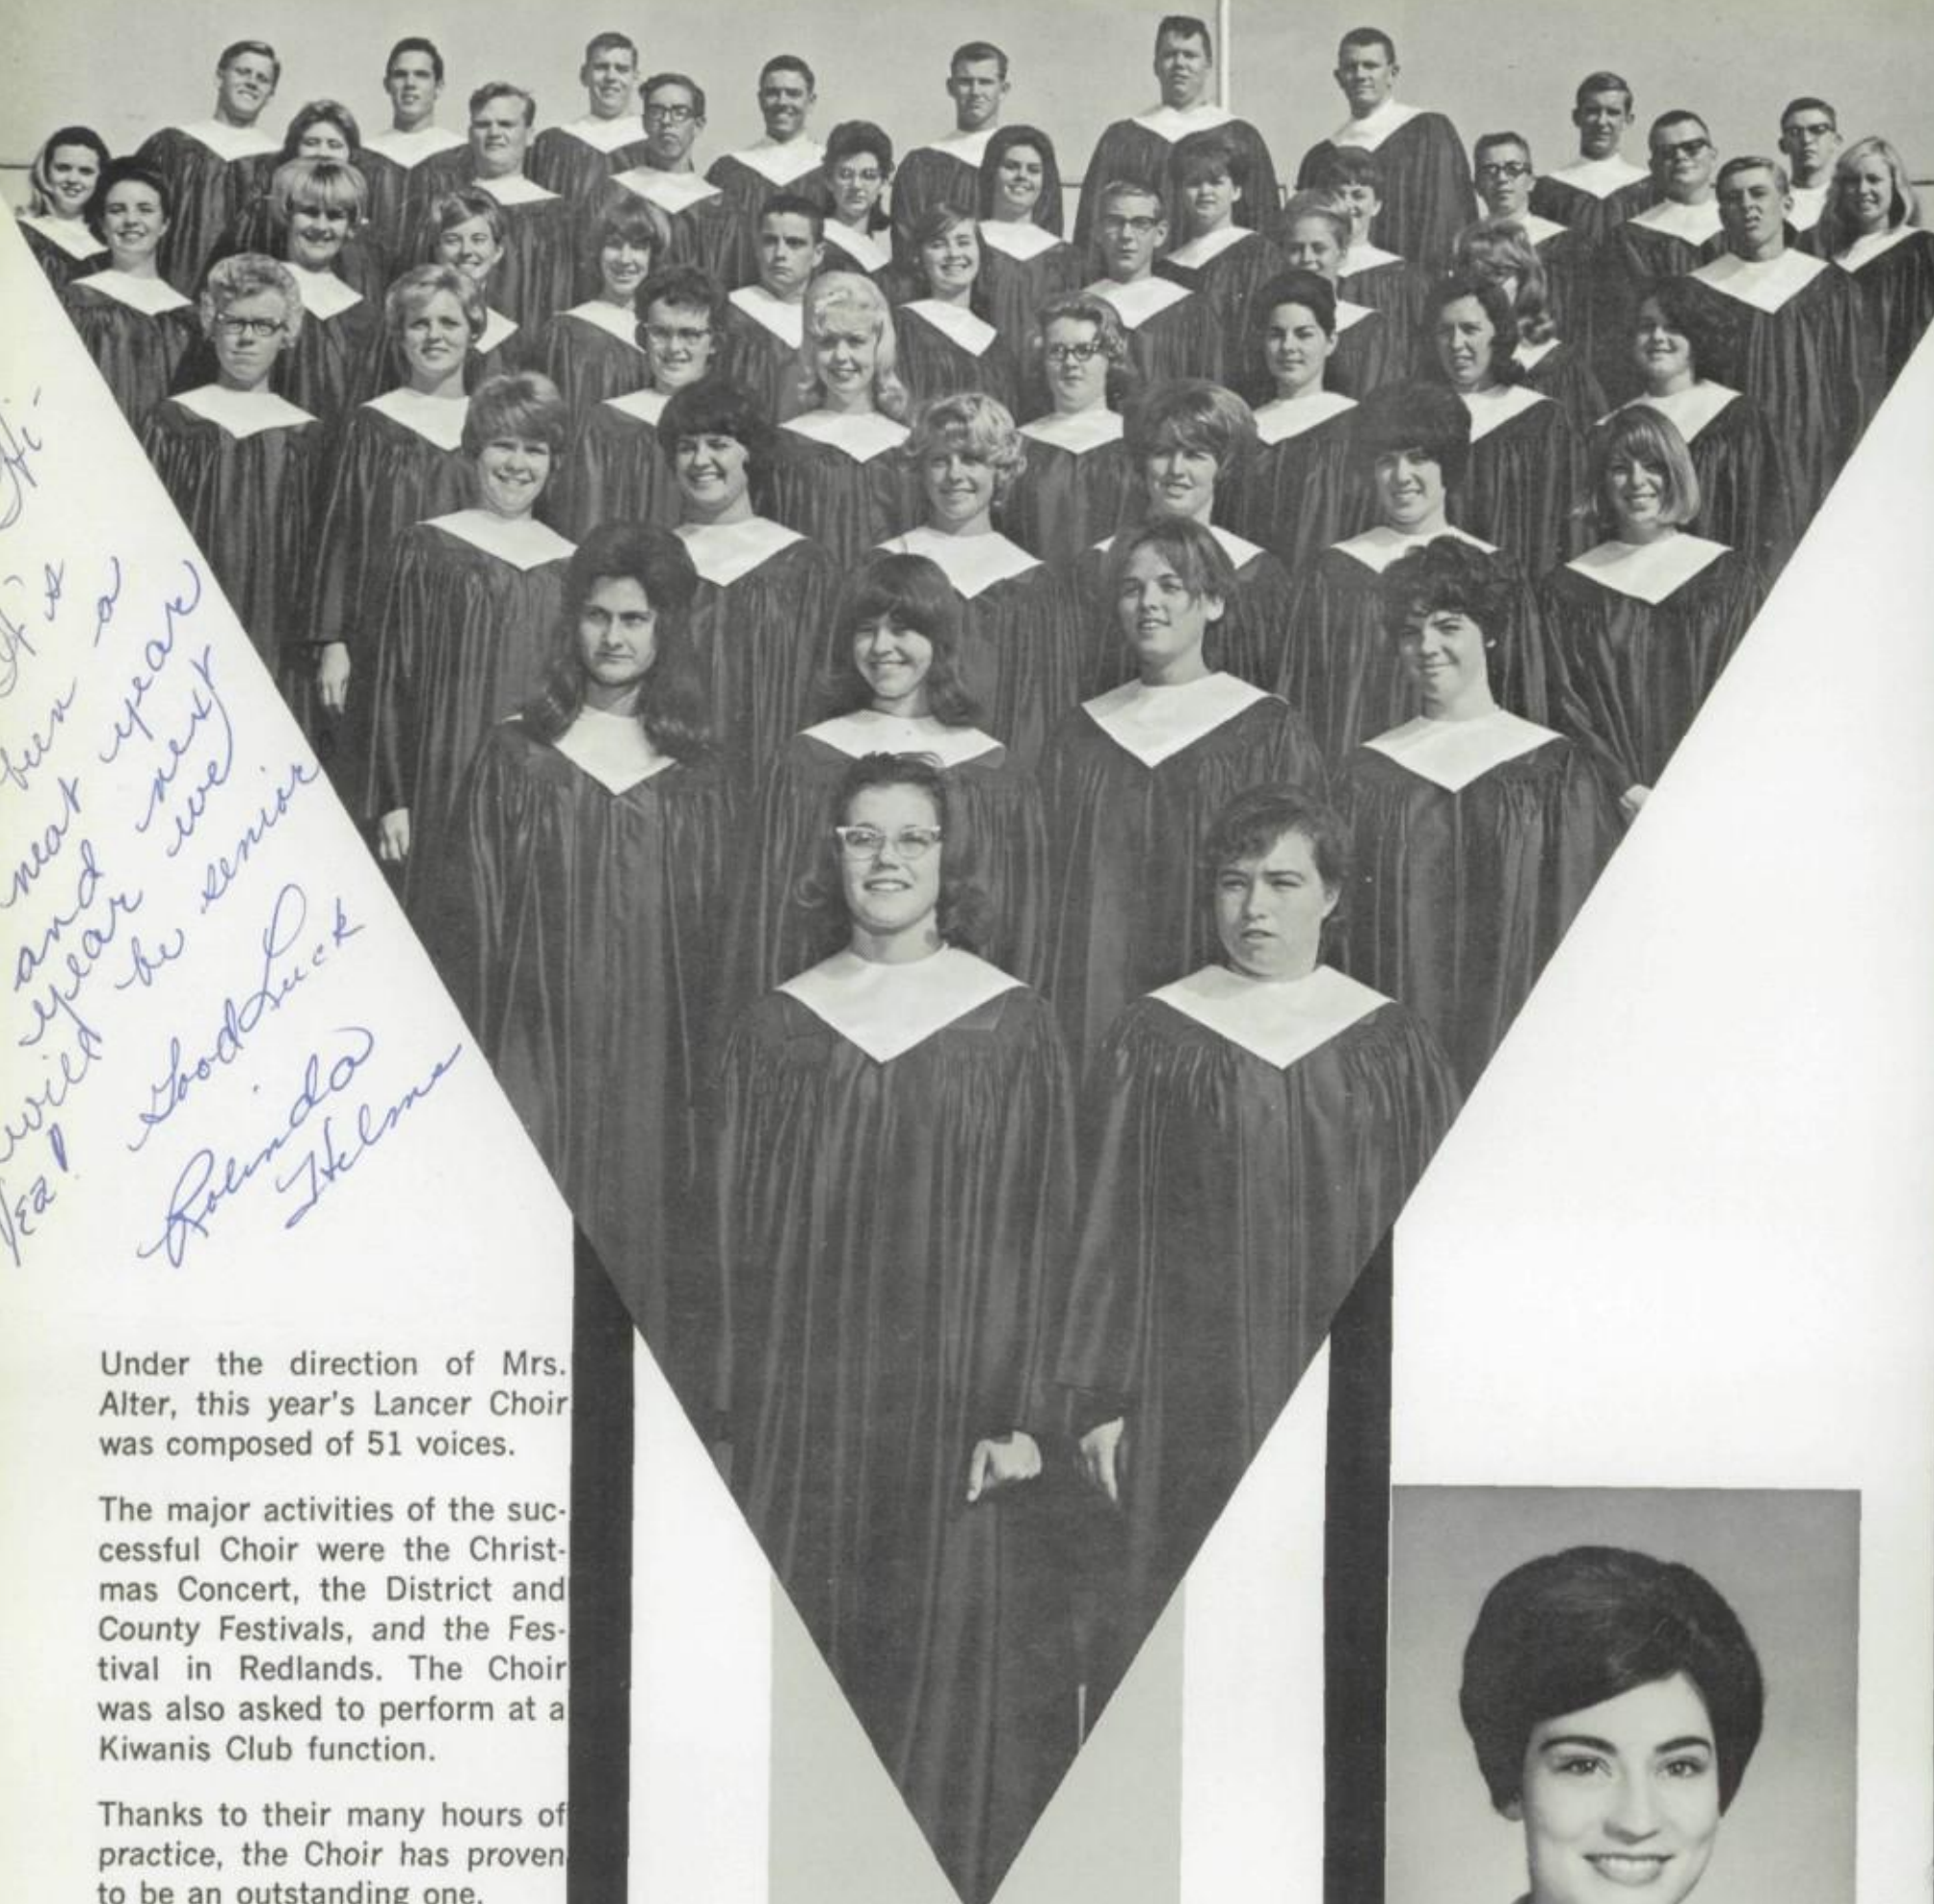

Competing with forty-four other majorette teams at the Long Beach All-Western Band Review, the Lancer Majorettes took second place.

Under the direction of Commandant Testa and Company Commander Allen Parish, the Cadet Corps explored the various forms of military science.

The Rifle Team participated in numerous matches, and with the other Cadets competed at different schools in drill competition.

The campus organizations proved again to be an asset as they not only gave students a chance to partake in extra-curricular activities but also helped to develop student leadership, broaden student interests, and landscape Hilltop's campus. Here, an informal gathering of the Art Guild is shown busily making pep ribbons for students to purchase.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is a service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International. It is open to boys of all classes who qualify because of high standards in citizenship, and leadership, subject to faculty approval. Mr. Peacock is the club advisor.

School and community service projects, such as helping to carry out the landscaping and school beautification program, the annual Toys for Tots Drive, the fire prevention program, and the fund raising "Bruce Brown Surfing Films," all kept the members active.

Key Club officers this year are: John Vredenburgh, president; Terry Maple, vice-president; John Link, secretary; and Don Montell, treasurer. Hilltop was also very honored this year by having two special representatives, Pat Borunda, Governor of the California, Nevada, Hawaii District and Terry Maple, Corresponding Secretary of the same district.

JOHN VREDENBURGH
President

"S" CLUB

New to our campus this year is a fast rising sister club to the Key Club. Sponsored by the Soroptimist Federation and under the direction of Miss Messina, the "S" Club's object is to be of service to school and community and to prepare members to assume leadership in the business and professional world.

Membership in the "S" Club is limited to girls of Junior and Senior standing who show initiative and leadership in extra-curricular activities and who have satisfactory citizenship and scholarship records.

This year's elected officers are: Nancy Kuebler, president; Paula Burkey, vice-president; Barbara Mangles, recording secretary; Judy Schnorr, corresponding secretary; Suzanne Phillips, treasurer; Lynn Iwashita, Senior class director; and Carol Webb, Junior class director.

LATIN CLUB

Stimulating and promoting a greater interest in Roman culture and customs, this year's Latin Club was open to all Latin students and its membership has grown by leaps and bounds. Mr. Jones, Latin teacher and club advisor, helped plan the year's calendar of activities which included a joint meeting with Chula Vista High School's Latin Club, a guest speaker on the correlation between the Latin and Russian languages, and the annual Latin Banquet, which proved to be a big success.

Latin Club officers are: Bruce Wilson, consul (president); Cathy Chase, quaester (secretary); and Richard Thorn, aedile (treasurer).

SPANISH CLUB

JOHN CASE
President

The Spanish Club is an active group on the Hilltop campus. Its main purpose is to promote interest in the Spanish language. Membership is open to all interested students.

Under the direction of Mr. Clayton, this year's activities included ordering Spanish games to be played by the club members in Spanish, collecting canned goods for the needy at Christmas, and a dinner party for the club members at an authentic Spanish restaurant.

Club officers this year are: John Case, president; Bob Piety, vice-president-treasurer; and Joy Miller, secretary.

FUTURE TEACHER'S CLUB

BECKY RULE
President

Future Teachers of America helps prospective teachers become orientated to the teaching profession. Under the direction of Mr. Palmer, a field trip to Halecrest Elementary School was planned where members were able to sit in on elementary classroom proceedings.

Club officers for this year are: Becky Rule, president; Sally Smoak, vice-president; and Jeannie Booth, secretary-treasurer.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club brings the spirit and enthusiasm of dramatic activities to Hilltop High. The Drama Club coordinates theater evenings with local theater groups, organizes exchanges with other high schools, supports all N.F.L. activities, and produces a series of one-act plays. The officers for the Drama Club's 1963-64 year are: Michele Duffy, president; Linda Tatreau, vice-president; Dennis Southers, secretary; and Pam Robinson, treasurer. The faculty advisor to the Drama Club was Mr. Tomlinson.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers is a newly organized club under the direction of Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Guy. The object of the club is to promote a greater interest among young girls in the field of home economics. The club helped in the preparation for the annual Homemaking Department Tea. This year's officers are Sally Wilson, president; Lynn Taylor, vice president; Claudia Ralph, secretary; and Linda Evje, treasurer.

President

HEALTH CAREERS CLUB

Members of the Health Careers Club have an excellent opportunity to broaden their knowledge in the medical field.

During the year the organization toured Mercy College of Nursing and the South Bay Hospital. They also attended a conference at Balboa Park and heard speakers from Loretta Heights College.

Inter-club teas were held at Mar Vista and Chula Vista High Schools. The officers of the club are Madeline Bazzel, president; Anne Bergeron, vice-president; and Nancy Keely, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Mazzeo, school nurse, is the club advisor.

The Red Cross of Hilltop is a branch of the humanitarian service offered by the American Red Cross.

Part of the organization's program this year consisted of sending cultural chests to Colombia and South Africa. Another phase of the program included the Annual Enrollment Drive. Money was accumulated from the student body to send along with the other Red Cross funds to countries in need of assistance.

Membership in this organization is truly an honor and is obtained by receiving a minimum of ten points on semester report cards. There are three points for an "A" and one point for a "B" in any academic subject.

The C.S.F. took part in several activities. Among them was the trip to Mission Bay for a whale hunt, which proved to be extremely well-accepted by all who attended.

LANCE

"Spirit through service" would be a fitting maxim to describe Lance and Pen-non's willingness to serve at home games and many other A.S.B. activities. The members are as important to the smooth functioning of a game as the team or the cheerleaders are.

Missing games, being up to their elbows in tickets or popcorn, acting as guards, message bearers, and informants has, as its reward, the satisfaction of having truly been of service.

LEAGUE

Members of Girls' League include all the girls at Hilltop. In order to get the girls acquainted with H.H.S., the Girls' League sponsored "Big Sisters" to guide the incoming Sophomores around the campus. This was followed by a Fashion Show at the special girls' assembly.

The Girls' League seems to have established a tradition with their "Mum" corsages for Homecoming activities. "Silver Splendor," which was the theme of the annual Christmas Formal presented by the organization, was another highlight of this active group.

This particular Girls' League assembly presented a football game with girls playing. The antics of the girl football players filled the gym with laughter.

Second semester Girls' League representatives were Sophomores Jane Dunham, Debby Vener, Betty Bartells, Hillary Maveety, and Kay McCurley. The third row Seniors are Docia Drake, Kathy Howland, Carrol Anderson, Gail Gaynier, and Treasa Struble.

STAFF

The IDYLL staff certainly enjoyed their task. In spite of deadline pressures, we on the staff can never forget some of our most memorable events: after-school brain-storming sessions, corny elephant jokes, the constant wit contest among the staff members, and finally the hectic annual-signing party. The entire year provided a deep feeling of personal satisfaction, culminated when the entire student body overwhelmingly acclaimed the '64 IDYLL a success.

Another outstanding year has been experienced by the highly capable Lance Staff. The newspaper has maintained its high standards in reporting the news accurately and at the same time making it interesting.

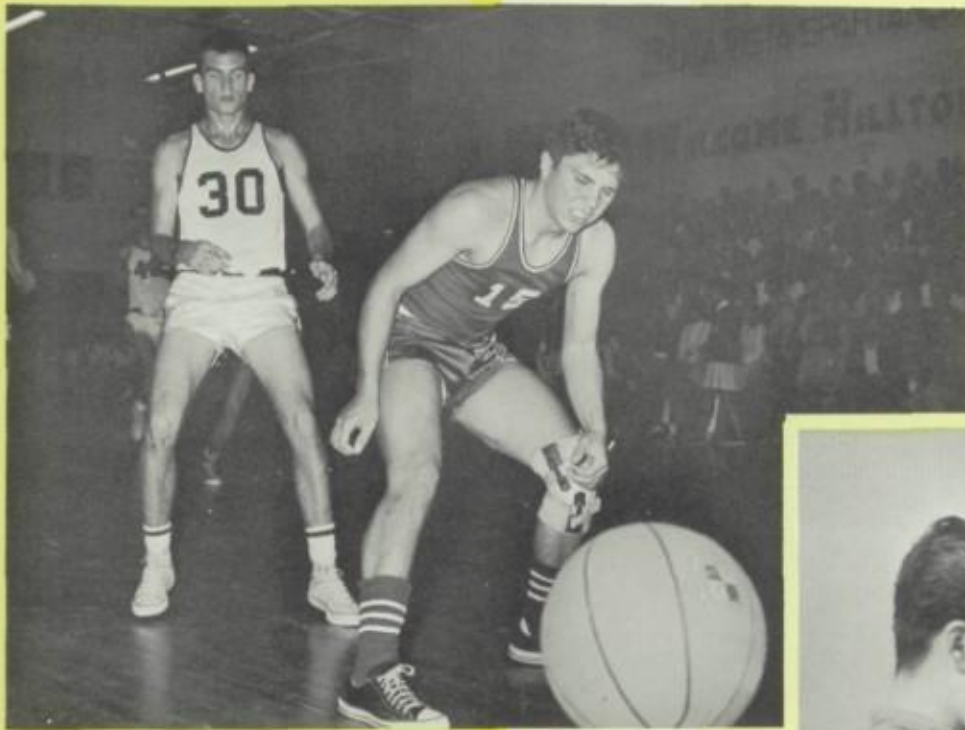

Compiling the news and writing it down aren't the only activities of this ambitious group. They also print and distribute the football grid programs at all home games.

Here Susan Rockar, Director, and Kay Ochi, Executive Director, are explaining some aspects of the 1964 Variety Show to members of the Lance Staff. "How the West Was Lost" was co-sponsored by the Staff and was held in March.

Courage, stamina, hard work, patience and practice are all essential requirements in the field of sports. Hilltop's athletes certainly toed the mark in these respects and then showed outstanding sportsmanship when they faced a few disappointments. Although they did not win Metro League championships in some sports, Hilltop's athletes are admired by all Lancers as outstanding symbols of IDOL, IDYLL, and IDLE MOMENTS.

Typical moments include those captured in these photographs. IDOL MOMENTS, like the high point man on the basketball team gritting his teeth in determination and a persevering cross-country man keeping up until the end of the race, make Hilltop's sports something to be proud of. IDYLL MOMENTS will be kept fresh through remembrances of the traditional success of our wrestling team and the traditional hand shaking before a game. Never to be forgotten are those pleasantly relaxed IDLE MOMENTS: boys resting while holding markers on the football field, and the idle and unprepared state our football co-captains were in when called upon to speak at the pep assembly preceding the Chula Vista game. With pep assemblies, bulletin notices, pre-game posters and actual games, every student could not help but feel connected with sports; everyone connected with sports could not help but feel proud of our sportsmen.

Greg Gary, Frank Fernandez, and Joe Ruenzel let the defensive unit work for a while.

The Lancer varsity put forth a tremendous effort this season against many formidable opponents. Going into each game fighting, the Lancers never lost faith or let their spirits be dampened. Although they can only boast of three victories, Mt. Miguel, 24-21; Castle Park, 26-0; and Coronado, 20-6, very narrow margins separated the Hilltoppers from being winners in the remaining six games. At the end of the season, Frank Fernandez, Joe Ruenzel, Bob Beckwith, Dave Lindsay, and Dave Gray were among the outstanding players.

LANCERS BOW TO CHULA VISTA

Frank Fernandez is number 14. As for the Spartan, his number is up.

The Lancers went down the hill to play with the little school across town. During the first quarter, the only score was via a Frank Fernandez run. In the second quarter, Chula Vista scored a touchdown and then ran for the conversion. They led at the end of the first half by a score of 7-6. In the second half, Hilltop kicked off, but the Chula deep men couldn't find the handle to the ball. Lancer Mike Foreward grabbed the pigskin and galloped 30 yards for the Hilltop touchdown. The Spartans again stopped the Lancer conversion attempt. Chula was next to score on a fourth down pass to Dave Webb. Chula's extra point was good, and they led 14-12. Frank Fernandez struck back with a pass to Greg Gary to make the score 18-14, Hilltop's favor. Once more Hilltop was unable to tally the extra point. With 30 seconds left to play, Chula Vista's Mike Anderson threw the game clincher to Wayne Gire. Mike Bair accounted for the final point, and the Spartans topped the Lancers 21-18.

Dave Lindsay (39) and Carl Bandelin (20), both All Metros, throw a pair of fine blocks, but one Spartan got through to stop Rudy Castro.

I'll let go of your shirt, if you'll let go of mine.

Who has the ball? If that Spartan isn't careful, Castro will have it.

LANCERS TROUNCE TROJANS

Having outrun his defender, Dave Gray goes out of his way to catch Fernandez's pass.

Mike Reno makes a great try, but the ball is a little too far behind him.

The Hilltoppers topped the Trojans to the delight of the Lancer grads. Neither the Lancer offense nor the defense showed any mercy toward the visiting Trojans. Hilltop jumped to a 7-0 lead in the opening minutes of the game. From then on, it was a one-sided game. Nothing that Castle Park put on the field was able to break through the Lancer line. Neither were they able to assemble anything strong enough to stop the Lancers. The Homecoming Game was a complete success, as we romped to a 26-0 victory over the Castle Park Trojans.

Fernandez tries the old keeper play and ends up with a healthy gain.

Fernandez decides to keep the ball again and it takes most of Castle Park's team to stop him.

HILLTOP CLOBBERS CORONADO

Not much hope for this Islander. Not much hope for any Islander when there's a Lancer around.

Mike Forward is all alone for this one.

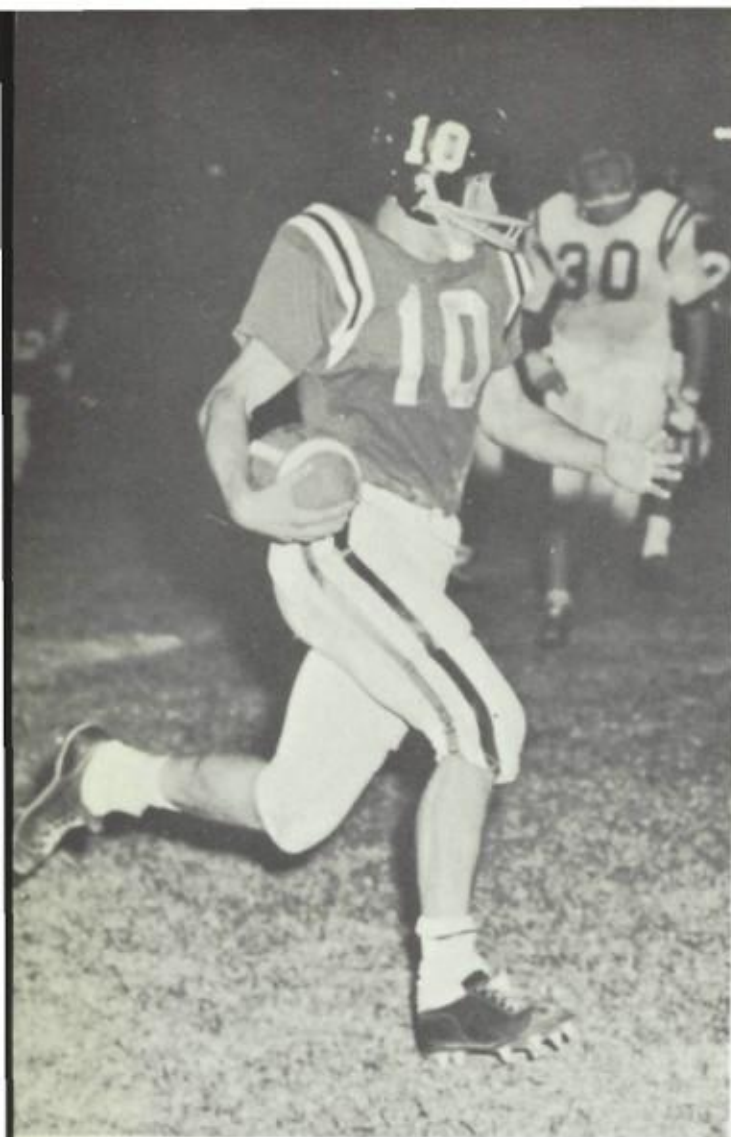

With their hopes high, the spirited Lancers went into Coronado's Homecoming game looking for their second win. The Islanders proved to be no match for the mighty Hilltoppers. Frank Fernandez, Hilltop's star quarterback, found his mark for three touchdown passes to annihilate Coronado's defense. Dave Gray caught two of the three passes and put the ball through the uprights both times for the conversion. During the final quarter, Fernandez found Greg Gary for the final Hilltop score. In the final two minutes of the game, Coronado's Brian Murray plowed through the line for the only Coronado score. The game ended 20-6.

Gary Earls is about to complete a pass play for that needed yardage.

Mike Forward seems to be saying something as he tries for the ball, "Crazy-Legs" Hirsch style.

Joe Ruenzel charges toward the end zone.

DEVILS DUMP LANCERS

The Red Devils came to Hilltop to win their first league game. The Devils scored first in the first quarter, taking an early 7-0 lead. In the second quarter, Joe Ruenzel went 11 yards to narrow the gap. Then the Devils came up with two more touchdowns to make the score 19-6 at the end of the first half. In the third quarter, Joe Ruenzel tromped 20 yards for another Lancer score. Fernandez plowed through the line for the extra point, and the score was 19-13. A 19-yard pass play from Fernandez to McCarthy tied up the score, and the conversion put Hilltop in the lead 20-19. In the final minutes, Sweetwater's Steve Bacon caught a deflected pass in the end zone to sew up the game. Morgan kicked the extra point and the game ended with the score of 26-20.

This Devil is stopped by Jerry Hanano and another Lancer.

All Metro Tackle Dave Lindsay (39) is stopping this Devil in pursuit of Greg Gary (12).

Brian Toon leaves players sprawled all over the field, including his blockers.

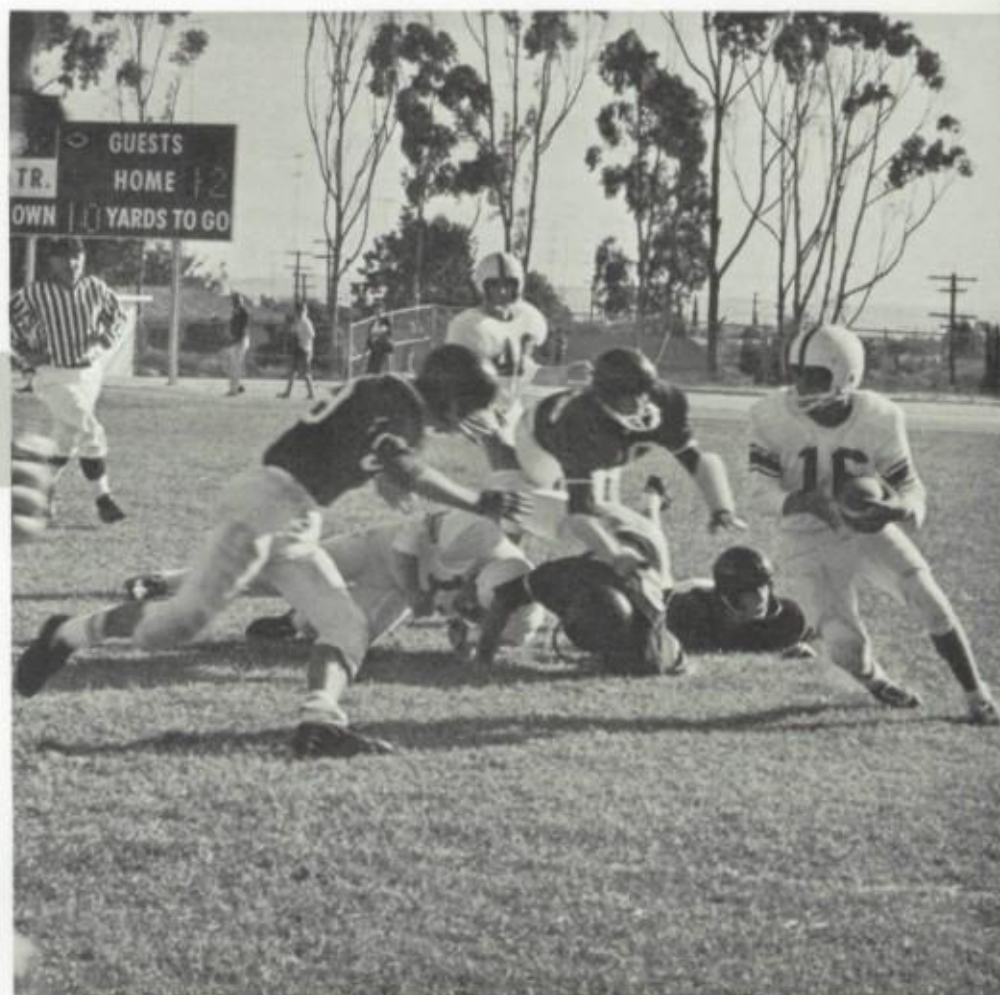

Bill Miller (15) goes down hard, but he doesn't let go of the ball.

Although the Lancer JV's can only talk of three victories, Chula Vista, Coronado, and Escondido, they can boast of the tremendous spirit behind them. Each home game saw hundreds of Lancer enthusiasts cheering for their team. Tom Powell and Bill Miller were chosen co-captains, and Ward Lannom was voted Most Valuable Player.

With the score showing 12-0 in favor of Hilltop, two Lancers charge the enemy.

The Varsity and the Junior Varsity both shared equal records this year. If the Varsity receives all the JV players for next year, the chances are good that we will enjoy a much more rewarding season. It seems obvious that the Varsity is better than the Junior Varsity, but if you try to compare them while watching their games, you will find it difficult to tell one from the other.

Ward Lannom, Most Valuable Player, has no opposition for this pass.

Although the Varsity team didn't bring home as many victories as it had in the past, they displayed sportsmanship and spirit, making all Cancers proud of them. The Junior Varsity Basketball team finished the season with only one loss, but the honors go to the Sophomore team which finished their season undefeated.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Lancer five got into many a tight spot this year. Some of them they managed to turn to their advantage and come out victorious. In others we were not so lucky and the game was lost. But still the team never failed to come back and start afresh for the next game.

Wherever the Lancer team traveled this year it never failed to draw a capacity crowd. It always seems that large crowds and the Lancer team go hand in hand.

HILLTOP MASHES EL CENTRO

Gary Kennedy surprises the El Centro defense, and gets in for two more points.

Jim Hitchcock leaps for the bucket as he leaves the El Centro defensive players gazing upward.

The Hilltop Lancers baffled the El Centro Spartans on Crawford's court. The Spartans rallied to take the first quarter lead 18-13, but were unable to control the ball during the rest of the game. The tremendous crowd saw a determined Hilltop team come back in the second quarter with 17 points while holding the Spartans to 9. During the third quarter, the Lancers scored 12 to El Centro's 8, and pulled ahead even farther in the last quarter by outscoring the Spartans 26-15. The Lancer effort, consisting of 14 out of 15 free throws, to El Centro's 8 out of 23, led Hilltop to a 68-52 victory.

Wrestling? No, just a scramble on the court.

HIGHLANDERS TOP LANCERS

Bob Moffitt (42) goes up, but there seems to be an extra arm against him.

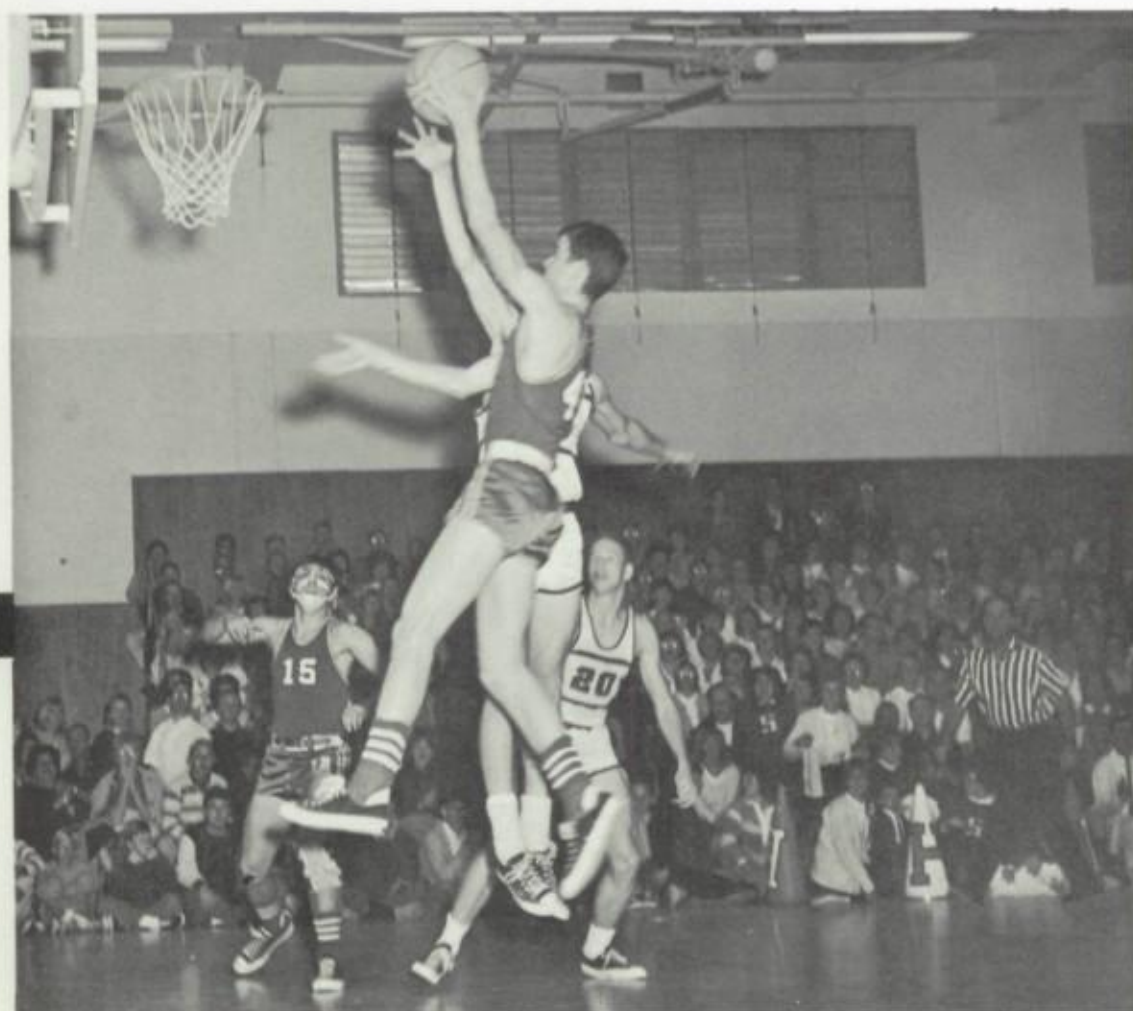

Jim Hitchcock gets off a right hand push shot, and leaves bewildered Highlanders on the floor.

With the gym packed and the team already on the court, the cheerleaders found little trouble rousing pep and enthusiasm. The Lancers were slow to start in the first quarter, with Helix taking the lead 22-8. The Lancers struck back in the second quarter, scoring 13 points to Helix's 12. The start of the second half showed both teams eager to play, but the tired Lancer defense showed its weakness by giving in to the Highlander offense. The Lancer effort was ended when Helix won 61-36.

CASTLE PARK SLIDES PAST HILLTOP

Terry Maple takes advantage of a poor Trojan defense and tries a jump for two.

Jim Longerbone makes a left-handed lay-up look easy as he beats his man to the jump.

It's not even a contest with three Lancers to one Trojan.

A standing room only crowd witnessed the downfall of the Lancers in Castle Park's new gym. The first half showed the Trojan offense to be a tough opponent by outscoring Hilltop 25-20. The remaining part of the game was completely dominated by Castle Park, and they won by a score of 53-46.

CORONADO SWAMPS HILLTOP

The first quarter yielded few points, but the Lancers came out on top 8-6. By the end of the half, Coronado was ahead 19-17. In the third quarter, the Lancers tried to rally, but came up one point short of their desired score, and the Islanders led 25-26. The fourth quarter showed the Islander offense overpowering the tired Lancer defense. We lost by the score of 42-35.

Bob Moffit gets in for another score, as an Islander tries to stop him.

Surrounded and outnumbered, Terry Maple leaps for the basket and two more points.

Gary Kennedy goes up to score with no competition from Coronado.

The J.V. Basketball team played a very successful season this year, losing only one game. With the J.V.'s returning next year, we have a good chance of repeating this year's performance. Mike Malone flies over his hurdle just ahead of his opponent.

The Lancer track team won their first two meets with Mt. Miguel and Mar Vista, and as a team, they came in first place in the J.C. Relays at Sweetwater. Their experienced coach, Mr. Anderson, who coached a fine Lancer Cross Country team to Metro championship, should be able to do the same for an excellent track team.

John Link is first to break the tape for another Lancer win.

George "Hercules" McClure tosses the hefty shot like a marble.

Hilltop's Bob Stokes, Richard Young, and Bill Piety are slightly behind their opponent, but from the expressions on their faces, they are planning to make up for lost time.

They're off! Hilltop's Hugh Hudson starts to take the lead.

Lancer Joe Ruenzel breaks the tape way out in front of all opposition.

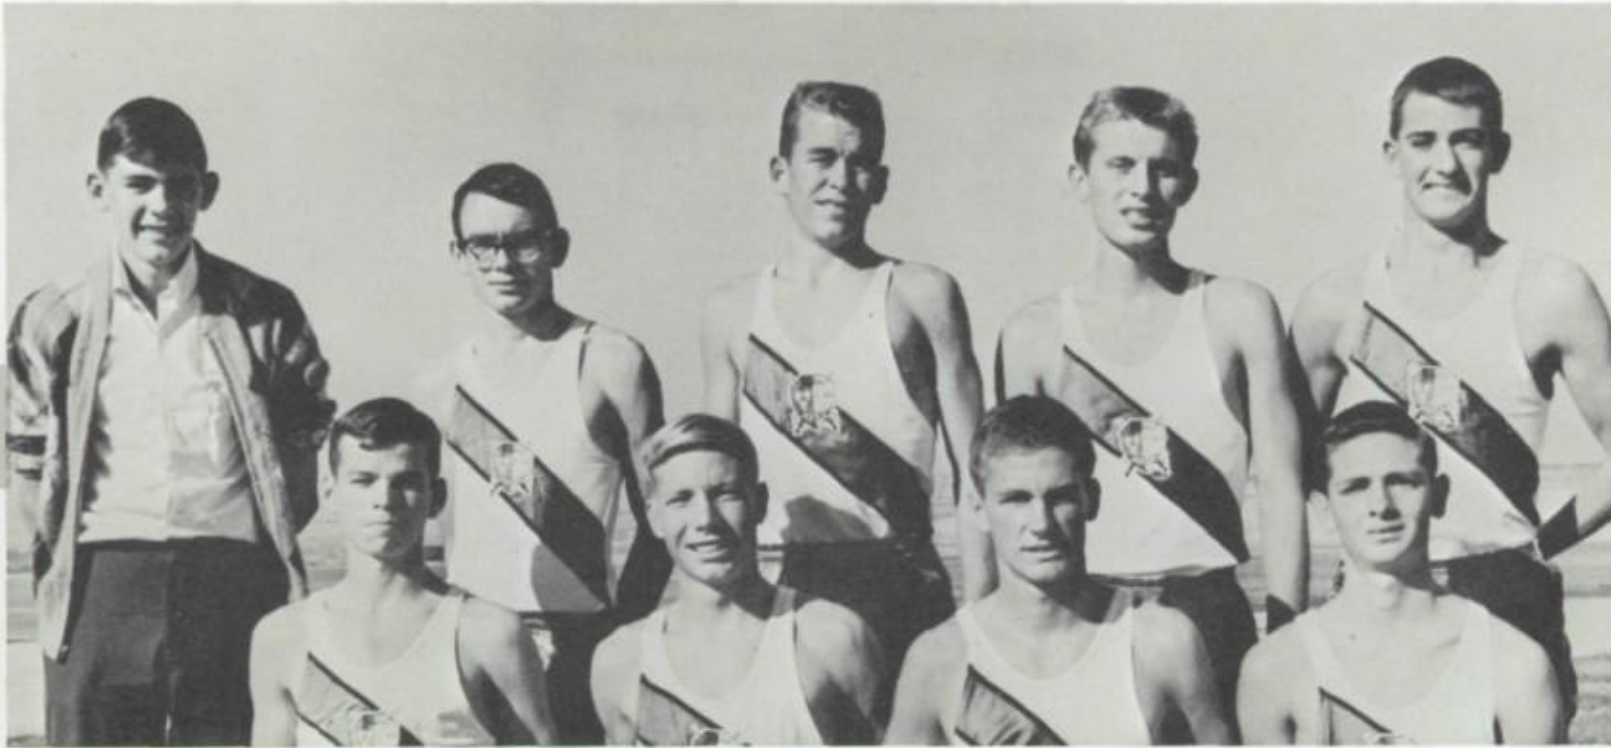

Tom Jensen goes up, and just barely clears it.

The future of the Hilltop track team looked very promising as the season opened. Their first meet was with a fast running Mount Miguel team, but we were faster. Mr. Anderson's experience as track and cross country coach has led Hilltop to innumerable victories in both sports. Although the season just started, we would like to take this opportunity to predict Metro Championship for our track team.

Even Lancers have to keep in shape.

The Cross Country team followed the tradition of victory here at Hilltop. The Lancers took first place in the Aztec Invitational meet for the medium schools' division. The Hilltop harriers totaled 79 points.

Mar Vista already looks worried.

156 The race has just started, and already the Devils are tired and falling behind.

The closest runner to Bob Bitterlie is 40 yards behind him, and he's a Lancer too!

As Spring rolled around, the seasonal sports took over at Hilltop. The baseball diamonds, swimming pools, tennis courts, golf courses and wrestling mats all became the scene of hardworking and spirited Lancers. The hardest foe found these five teams difficult to defeat.

METRO LEAGUE CHAMPS

Mr. Long's Varsity Baseball team certainly proved themselves worthy of the title Metro League Champs. Winning ten straight league games, Lancer baseballers brought glory to Hilltop's name throughout the county. Thanks to the fine Lancer defense, the opposition's scores were all kept to a minimum.

Heading the defense talent were three outstanding pitchers, Tom Seagren, Ron Perry, Dirk Van Dyke, who were all among the league's top ten hurlers. With all three of them returning next year, we predict another season ending in Metro League Championship.

It's going to be awfully hard to pin him down but the advantage certainly lies with the Lancer Matman.

It's all in the game. Taking the good with the bad is all part of wrestling and this Lancer is trying his best to dish out the bad.

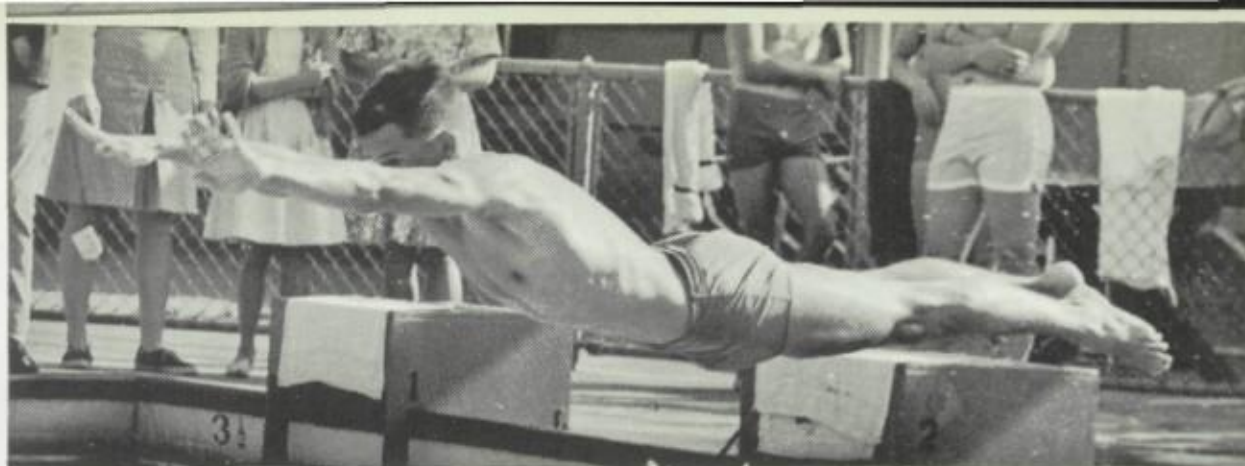

Adding up points and staying on top, Greg Witherspoon takes the advantage.

Every year wrestling turns out to be one of the more popular sports because of the number of boys who can letter in it. This year was no exception. The first of the season brought out boys of all weights and sizes, all trying to work their way up the ladder of opponents and finally make number one in their weight class. Some of the boys made it and some of them didn't, but all at least tried and that is the true expression of sportsmanship.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Striving for perfection and struggling for advancement are perhaps considered the chief employments of underclassmen. Their activities are numerous and the effects of their labors are reflected everywhere. Aspiring to reach high goals is not uncommon, but actually working to attain these ideals is infrequent. Hilltop's underclassmen, however, accepted this challenge and never ceased to convey IDOL, IDYLL, and IDLE MOMENTS to Hilltop's repertoire of memories.

Depicting the most typical remembrances of underclassmen's efforts are the IDOL, IDYLL, and IDLE MOMENTS captured on this page. IDOL MOMENTS, represented by buglers commencing the daily salute to the flag of our nation and bewildered Sophomores remaining in awe of their new surroundings, are unforgettable attributes of underclassmen glory. Typifying IDYLL MOMENTS are the traditions of participation in student government elections and having class pictures taken. Yet, even the most diligent of workers can still have his IDLE MOMENTS: relaxing on the grass between buildings at lunch, and of course, trying to cat-nap during class. The sum of these moments is certainly a rightful indication of underclassmen success.

JUNIORS

BRUCE CAMERON

The school year 1963-64 was a memorable one for the Junior class. The big excitement of the year was attending football games under our own lights. Anticipating the Senior year, the Juniors selected Senior rings and attended the traditional Junior-Senior Dance.

The Sophomore Class of '66, eager to prove themselves worthy of being new Lancers, displayed unlimited enthusiasm and spirit. While the Sophomores set high scholastic records, they still found time to participate in extra-curricular activities.

S O P H O M O R E S

The Sophomore class was indeed fortunate to have Mr. Livermore as their counselor.

His efforts have made this first year at Hilltop most beneficial and memorable to all Sophomores.

Officers: Joanna McClelland, Treasurer; John Lyons, President; Jan Creaser, Vice President; Vicki Leitner, Secretary.

Sophomore elections were held in October, 1963. The presidency was won by John Lyons. Since that time John's leadership has led the Sophomore class to an enjoyable, active year.

Many thanks go to the Sophomore class officers of '64. Their leadership along with Mr. Livermore has made this year a memorable one for all.

To the Idyll Staff, advertising is concerned with much more than a medium of retail trade. Through the cooperative assistance of the merchants in this area, publication of Hilltop's annual was made possible. Here, the Chamber of Commerce symbolizes the many and varied businesses and the atmosphere of tranquility and warmth found throughout the ever-growing community.

EPILOGUE

Again the seemingly unending school term has come to an end. The corridors now echo with voices and laughter amidst hidden smiles. The bright and warm buildings have become like fallen shadows — separate and dismal from those so familiar to students.

The lively and quick tempo of student life has diminished to a bare lonely beat. A slow walk through the barren halls or a peek through the closed windows captures the atmosphere now surrounding the deserted campus. Life merely maintains existence until the time comes again for noisy and excited students to swarm over the school grounds.

The still podium representing the teachers' battleground, the closed history book full of the past, the silent movies that rapidly have become a major device for teaching, and the "pleasant smelling" gym locker rooms all remind us of the knowledge and experiences that we have gained in one short year. But we have gained much more than academic knowledge. We have learned a little better, one of the most important things — getting along with our fellow man.

As next September arrives, we realize that new IDOLS will be seen and some of the old ones will be gone. As we travel life's multitude of walks, each going our IDLE or ambitious way, our paths may never meet again. The IDYLL term's lease is ended — but friendship, experiences, and knowledge will be reborn next fall.
